

DAYS OF OUR LIVES #264

MAIL-call - PRESERVING FORGOTTEN MEMORIES

Your memoirs are most welcome to the ASA Turkey DAYS OF OUR LIVES and is an effort on my part to preserve the stories and memories of Army Security Agency veterans who served in TURKEY during the COLD WAR.

I try my best to think out every word in crafting the monthly DOOL's. It's a tough job and is very time consuming and with that said – I'd appreciate your feedback.

But I can, with certainty state that MOST will read the monthly DOOL – and say that was very interesting or that you remember that VET or incident and walk away with information that would have added to any particular entry.

I do not know for certain how many receive the DOOL each month, but Chuck Bergmann informs that he sends the monthly DOOL out to about 425 emails and a countless number rely on the website at <http://dool-1.tripod.com> for the DOOL news. I want to remind all that Bill Simons maintains the website and that he (Det 4) and Mark Hamilton (Det 27) were the pathfinders.

Chuck Bergmann just sent the below listed statistics that I'm including below FYI. There are a few that are still forwarding my email to others. Not sure who and how many there are that are still doing that. But for those that are doing it - Thanks for Help.

In all cases here I send about 400 to 425 emails each month.

DOOL 263 There were 295 that opened the email and read the DOOL on September 1, 2014
DOOL 262 There were 286 that opened the email and read the DOOL on August 1, 2014
DOOL 261 There were 303 that opened the email and read the DOOL on July 1, 2014
DOOL 260 There were 276 that opened the email and read the DOOL on June 1, 2014
DOOL 259 There were 295 that opened the email and read the DOOL on May 1, 2014
DOOL 258 There were 300 that opened the email and read the DOOL on April 1, 2014
DOOL 257 There were 307 that opened the email and read the DOOL on March 1, 2014
DOOL 256 There were 288 that opened the email and read the DOOL on February 1, 2014
DOOL 255 There were 300 that opened the email and read the DOOL on January 1, 2014
DOOL 254 There were 282 that opened the email and read the DOOL on December 1, 2013

Now this gives you some idea of how my emails I send out and how many of them open the DOOL and read it each month. I have not cleaned up the list for some time now and I will probably get around to doing that before the end of the year. It looks like the average is about 300 of the 400 I send out actually read it. Now you have to remember that this is not super accurate, but I can say that it is within about plus or minus 5 on the those that read it. I have also found that there are some that only read the DOOL about once every 3 or 4 months. I do get emails from some of the vet's if they don't get there DOOL by the 4 or 5th of the month wanting to know where it is. So those that read it are real Diehards about getting the DOOL on time. I get about 1 or 3 emails a month from some of those who cannot open the file. Not much I can do for them. The other 300 or so seem not to have any problem. In most cases the Adobe PDF software on their computer is outdated and cannot read the new PDF format or they are using a Mac computer and for some reason their Mac is not letting them open it. If they let me know I can always send them an attachment which seems to work for them. Remember these are large files and you have to have a computer with a lot of memory and speed. Chuck Bergmann, 440-871-1141.

Thanks Chuck. - I believe that it's obligatory on each of us ASA Turkey VETS to unequivocally get involved and work jointly to insure that the ASA Turkey group continues unwavering and that the term ASA Turkey veteran does not fade away like the Army Security Agency has since 1976.

Let's all make a pledge to start participating in the reunions and adding to the stories that others have remembered. Patty and I feel that we've given the ASA Turkey group all that we can and it's time for others to step up with new ideas and energy. Thanks for listening, and we again invite you vet's to share your thoughts with us. The Greek philosopher DIOGENES said "We have two ears and only one tongue so that we would listen more and talk less." Sincerely, Elder RC and Patty Green, asagreenhornet@comcast.net

THE 2014 ASA TURKEY REUNION WAS A SUCCESSFUL EVENT AND THE AFTER REUNION REPORT AND PHOTO'S WILL BE INCLUDED IN DOOL#265. Herein you will find a few photo's scattered within the DOOL.. The first shows Luther & Edna Jones from Sunset Beach, NC posing with the reunion cake.

There were VETS present from 20 states.

At the reunion the future of the ASA Turkey reunions was discussed in detail. We discussed some of the finer points of running the reunions and made it known that I will continue to be involved in the planning of reunions, but our days of hosting the reunions are ending because we are simply tired

We need others to get dedicated to the annual reunions and become involved with hosting reunions. This isn't a knee-jerk reaction on our part as we mentioned above.

There isn't too many ASA units having reunions or newsletters and the size of those activities are dwindling. We simply cannot sit idly by and let this happen to the ASA Turkey Group. My goal is to preserve the ASA Turkey reunions and the DOOL by establishing back-up leadership

PLEASE COMPLETE THIS SURVEY AND RETURN IT TO ME BY RIGHT CLICKING AND HI-LITE THE WHOLE SURVEY WITH YOUR ANSWERS INCLUDED AND THEN RIGHT CLICK AGAIN AND CLICK COPY AND THEN PASTE INTO AN EMAIL TO asagreenhornet@comcast.net.

The Thursday meal at Dienner's Country Restaurant in Lancaster proved that my prediction in DOOL #263 that those attending this Amish restaurant would leave wishing they had a Dienner's Country Restaurant near them. Everyone ranted and raved about this Amish restaurant.

THE GETTYSBURG TOUR REPORT by Wayne Ervin, Det 4-4

Wayne Ervin

On Friday morning the 19th, seventeen members of the ASA reunion car pooled over to the Gettysburg National Battlefield Park. For some it was their first time and for others, like myself, it was an opportunity to witness the changes that have occurred. After all, when I was there as a college student in 1966 they did not have over fourteen hundred memorials and statues on the battlefield.

Those car pooling as a group were Gene & Kathy Schnagel; Walt Haase, Herb Hollowell and his friend Tripp Goolsby; Eddie and Annegell McCants, Kay Ervin and myself; Chuck and Joan Malsch; Arnold and Janet Steffen; Frank and Judy Siebenaler; and Jack & Kay Obrien (questionable). All paid for a combined ticket of $ 11.50 (senior and military discount) for a film on the battle, the cyclorama and tour through the large museum inside the Visitor center.

The film regarding the Battle of Gettysburg gave a brief background to the causes of the Civil War or as known south of the Mason-Dixon line, the War Between the States. It was narrated by the famous actor Morgan Freeman who related mainly the role of slavery in creating the war that caused the deaths of between 633,000 to 700,000 soldiers.

Unfortunately there was no mention of economic differences, states rights and fanaticism on both sides. The film itself was somewhat brief and did not explain as much on the battle in Gettysburg as expected but gave an overall explanation for most.

Next we were taken upstairs to the Gettysburg Cyclorama where artists had drawn a beautiful panorama of the third day of the battle(July 3, 1863) titled "Gen. George Pickett's Charge." The drama of the day was greatly illustrated in many scenes of the attacks by General Robert E. Lee's 2nd and 3rd Corps charging the Army of the Potomac at the angle and copse of trees in the center of the Union line. Only one hundred fifty of the Confederates (Georgians and North Carolinians) made it to Union lines on Cemetery Hill. The episode was named the "High Water Mark of the Confederate" because the remaining two years of the War of the Rebellion or the War of Northern Aggression forced Lee and his Army of Northern Virginia to go on the defensive and mainly attempting to protect Richmond, VA or the Southern capital.

A few of us were most struck by the brevity of the the Gettysburg Cyclorama's narration with very little detail although there was so much displayed in the artistic work available to the public. Having been to the Atlanta Cyclorama which explains the Battle of Atlanta in 1864, we found the Gettysburg product a little lacking in its total package. Yet, to meet such a standard would have meant that the Gettysburg Park Service would have had to produce three days of the battle which would have been so costly and an extraordinary artistic task.

Upon completion, we went downstairs to the museum which offered a glimpse at human cost of the three day battle with casualty numbers for all the states that were involved. When the battle was completed both the North and South combined lost over 51, 000 casualties (killed, wounded & captured). There were many displays that explained the war's beginning & demonstrated the battles leading up to the summer of 1863 when the Gettysburg Campaign began when the Southern Army left Virginia in hopes of obtaining supplies; forcing the Union forces to leave the battle contested state of Virginia; & gambling a victory in Pennsylvania might shorten the war by intensifying the antiwar Copperhead & opponents of President Lincoln.

Most of the group went into Gettysburg for lunch and some quick sightseeing. The Ervins and the McCants went to the Blue and Gray Bar & Grill and were tickled by the burger menu which named hamburgers and hot dogs after the different generals who had participated in the battle where the cannonade had been heard all the way in Pittsburgh some 120 miles northwest.

As we returned to the battlefield we began car pooling NW of town of Gettysburg where the battle erupted on the morning of July 1st, 1863 . Here you followed the skirmish line of the Northern & Southern armies who accidentally bumped into each setting off a battle that tested the mettle of a Union commander (Gen. George Meade) who had only been appointed leader of the Army of Potomac as little as three days earlier on June 28th.

There were sixteen sites along the car pool roads that took you to all the places where the three day battle unfolded. Along the ride the many units & regiments who were involved in the battle were marked and memorials were made to their bravery that day with state monuments that included everything to the individual soldier who fired the first shot, to the dog who waited on the battlefield on the 1st day where the men of the Irish Brigade had fallen in trying to repel Confederates attacks. The largest & most beautiful monument was the Pennsylvania one which contained names of the generals and leaders of their state who had engaged the Confederacy & contained Lee's invasion of their native state.

Our car along with one or two more tried to find access to Devil's Den that was a pivotal location on the 2nd day of the battle where Longstreet's men tried to dislodge Union soldiers on Little Round Top. One particular stop on the drive of the battlefield was Little Round Top where the 20th Maine under Joshua Chamberlain had fought hand to hand with bayonets with Georgians and others in attempt to keep the South from seizing the high ground & possible victory. The crest of the hill is open to the public & provided a great view of Seminary Ridge, Devil's Den & the Peach Orchard which were the objectives of both sides on the bloody second day.

Because traffic was so horrendous last year at the 150th anniversary of the battle the Park Service removed two lane access and made the entire tour a one way which kept us from finding the road to Devil's Den. We tried three times & continually met "do not enter & "wrong way" road signs stymying our hopes to park near the famous rocks.

After witnessing the copse of trees & the angle where the North won the battle with their valiant stand ,we drove around the northeastern sector of the battle where attacks were made on the 2nd & 3rd day at Culp's Hill. Sadly Pvt. Wesley Culp, a PA. native who fought for the state of Virginia, was killed on Culp's Hill or near a barn on the 3rd day which was still owned by his uncle. Then we left the battlefield and cooled ourselves with a cool stop at Friendly's ice cream restaurant relishing our visit to Adams County and battlefield where the war saw the South lose a hard fought battle at Gettysburg, PA. The next evening Lee's army will begin their strategic retreat south to Virginia unaware that the city of Vicksburg, MS had fallen to General Grant's Army bringing immense happiness to Lincoln and the Union cause.

Above is Max Putter wearing the latest jacket and hat that he made and will sell to those who call him at 609-823-2545 or send email to nashswim@aol.com. The hat matches the jacket which has a hood attachment. This would make a good Christmas gift – so think it over and then contact Max for the prices. Etc.

Gerard M. Dirkx, longtime Rancho Mirage resident, retired U.S. Army Colonel, and President of Dirkx Direct International, passed away peacefully 3 July 2013. He was 88 years old. Gerard was born in 1925 to Dutch immigrant parents, Adrian and Johanna (Roozen) Dirkx in Harrison, WI. After Johanna's death in 1927, Gerard lived eight years in St. Joseph's Orphan Home in Superior, WI. Gerard served five years in the U.S. Navy during WWII. He then enlisted in the U.S. Army as Counter Intelligence Special Agent and was sent to OCS. He married Lydia Olga Marhula on 22 April 1949. Together they traveled the world and reared four children. They divorced in 1976. Gerard rose to the rank of Colonel, serving with distinction in the Army Security Agency in such locations as Japan, Hawaii, Germany, Sinop, Turkey and Viet Nam. He retired in 1973. Gerard had a second 30 year career in direct marketing, developing mail order branches of major department stores such as Macy's New York & I. Magnin in San Francisco. In 1977 he married Diane Marlin in Cushing, MN. In 1985, Gerard started his own consulting firm, Dirkx Direct International, and he & Diane moved to Rancho Mirage, Calif. In Rancho Mirage, Gerard was on the board of the Public Library, volunteered at the Pegasus Riding Academy for the Handicapped, and he and Diane were pleased to be charitable supporters of Fashion Group International. He is survived by his wife, Diane Marlin-Dirkx, Rancho Mirage; four children, Mary Dirkx Jorn, Lawrence, Kan.;

Gerard M. Dirkx, Jr., Plano, TX; Steven M. Dirkx, Dallas, TX; Christopher A. Dirkx, Austin, TX; a brother, Peter A. Dirkx, Mankato, MN.; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Finally located Colonel Dirkx on 6 March 2003. Most vet's thought his first name was Gerald, but its Gerard. Spent 30 years in the US Army and has some fond memories of his Tour of Duty at Det 4 in Sinop. Retired from the military as a Full Colonel and was an exec with a mail order outfit in Dallas, TX. Moved to California in 1989 and has a consulting business that keeps him busy. In fact, at age 77 he travels to Japan every other month. He told me that with the exception of Burt Slessinger, I was the first one to contact him about his time spent on the hill called Sinop. A friend of his at Det 4 was CPT Donald S. Aines who was the Adjutant and XO in 60-61. Both were at Sinop on 17 May 1961 when the RIOT took place.

Harold (Winky) Winkler served at Det 4 and remembers both Aines & Dirkx and considers both as excellent leaders. Both retired as Colonels.

Dear Elder & Mack, - Carol and I are so very saddened to have to cancel our attendance at the ASA Turkey reunion in York, PA. An unavoidable client emergency is taking me to London. I'm very sorry about the last-minute notice. To the extent that any of my pre-payment is refundable please apply that credit to the provisioning for the hospitality room. We truly hope to see you all in 2015.

Elder, - Jack Obrien was at our meeting on Thursday evening in the hospitality room but I cannot remember for sure if he went to the battlefield on his own.

Columbus, GA is on the Alabama border next Phoenix City, AL across the river. I am on the GA coast halfway between Savannah and Jacksonville, FL. They have a Ironclad museum in Columbus now.

Thanks for the kind words about the Gettysburg report. We all appreciate the work you did making the York reunion so successful. Thanks to you and Patty. Wayne

Rich Kremzier displaying his Site locator to Lee Post, John Owen and Elder Green in the hospitality room

Rich took countless hours at the 2014 reunion explaining & showing what his Site Locator is about to groups and then spent sit-down time with individuals to have them explore and locate the ASA sites they know. He also took part in hospitality activities and heard a lot of war stories that evening. His Site Locator is on the list of potential exhibits for inclusion in the new CCEI at the NSA Museum. He enjoyed the reunion and says that he will be back in 2015.

I'd love to receive a copy of the pictures taken at the reunion. I know a lot were taken, taken by quite a few different attendees; and I imagine there are too many in all for you to post them all in your DOOL newsletter. Or maybe you have a Pictures section on DOOL that I don't recall – in which case I can download them from there. Anyway ... It was a pleasure and a joy to present and demonstrate my Site Locator during your 2014 ASA Turkey Reunion. Your hospitality, everyone's friendliness, and sharing exploring the globe for "sites of interest", all combined to make my experience at the reunion most memorable, wholly appreciated, and very satisfying. Spending personal time with reunion attendees, both at and away from the demo model, proved the most fun of all. I came away feeling that I have made new friends, rather than just new acquaintances. Thank you for the opportunity to demo my Site Locator and to enjoy meeting and getting know the gang.

Everyone can keep in touch with me and the progress on the Site Locator project, by contacting me at SiteLocatorProject@comcast.net. And can acquaint themselves with my directly-related project, by searching the web using the term "cdaa sites", to find my collection of CDAA circular arrays.

Best regards to all, Rich Kremzier

Elder, Hi, As it stands now, I will come up for one day of the reunion and say hi, swap lies, talk about red bellies, grate rubs, etc. I was one of the Det 4-4 "volunteers" that took off for Phu bai in 69. I swear to this day - I thought it was supposed to have been Udorn, Thailand! I've enjoyed the DOOL's over the years and was wondering if anybody had heard from fellow volunteers Fred Ball or Cliff Myles? Elliot Reid another volunteer, from what I'm able to gather died several years ago in Anchorage, Alaska and was a retired fireman. In your opinion, what would be the best day to attend? Thanks, Ron

Hey Elder, Meant to write to you and tell you how much we enjoyed the North Myrtle Beach reunion. Not going to be able to attend this year because of going to London in November to celebrate my 70th birthday with my daughter who lives there. Her husband is an MD who works for the Foreign Service and is assigned to our London Embassy as the Regional Medical Officer. My wife and I had a great trip to Israel in April. I went there in June 1968 with Ozzie Osborne from Karamursel. The country has changed tremendously in the past 46 years. I've changed a bit myself during that time. We expect to be attending all future reunions. Thanks for all your work! Jerry Elder and Patty..... I'm sure I echo everyone that attended our 2014 reunion in saying what a super job you and Patty did. Also kudos to Luther and Edna for their wonderful hospitality room. Everything was just perfect. Norene and I certainly greatly enjoyed every single event. I know it takes a whole lot of effort to put on such an event. Hats off also to Max (no pun intended) for hats and shirts, also to everyone else who helped make this event so memorable ! Best regards to all, Buzz Osswald (Ozzie) PLs put in the next DOOL.

Sue and Lee Post at breakfast. They both enjoyed the reunion and vow that they will be back in 2015 and just might host a future reunion in the Syracuse, NY area. I found them in August 2014

Wayne Ervin, I will start on the names in the Order that Elder published in the DOOL. If you, Walt, Elder, or anyone has additional names to search, they can send them to me. I truly enjoyed the reunion, and hope I can help find more veterans from Turkey. KTF, Lee Post

Enjoyed the newsletter but I have a big concern on you folks sending out old copies of orders that contain names and SSNs. You never know who might see that and what they may attempt to do with it. So please do not continue that practice. Thanks, Ky Slickers

THIS IS THE FIRST TIME THAT I MADE THIS MISTAKE AND IT WILL NOT HAPPEN AGAIN- -gH

Elder, I am unhappy sending this e-mail. I have just received news that my presence is required in Delaware, September 17-21. As the newly elected National Executive Committeeman for Delaware American Legion, I will have to escort the National Vice Commander during his visit on the dates shown. I will have to cancel my plans to attend our reunion in York. Judi and I were really looking forward to attending this reunion. We both wish you and Patty a very successful reunion. Please keep in touch and let us know about future plans for ASA Reunions.
